CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

16TH ASIA-PACIFIC TRAINING WORKSHOP ON EIU EIU, FOSTERING GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP

1. BACKGROUND

Acknowledging the critical importance of preparing educators towards a Culture of Peace, APCEIU has been organizing capacity-building training workshops on Education for International Understanding (EIU) for educators. The Asia-Pacific Training Workshop on EIU (APTW), APCEIU's flagship programme, has been held annually since 2001. Designed as a 'Training of Trainers (TOT)', APTW aims to enhance participants' knowledge, skills, and commitment to EIU and GCED (Global Citizenship Education) and furthermore enable them to competently design and implement EIU/GCED (training) activities in their local and national contexts.

GCED has become a new educational goal to be achieved by the international community by the adoption of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Education 2030 Framework for Action. This year's APTW, under the subtitle of "EIU, Fostering Global Citizenship", will provide a platform where participants learn, experience, share and reflect upon various issues on education to foster global citizenship in this complex, interconnected society. Fostering global citizenship is in line with EIU's core values in terms of the promotion of learning to live together to forge more just, peaceful, and inclusive society.

The session format of this intensive 9-day workshop includes lectures, discussions, workshops, in-depth seminars, field visits, action plan development as well as formal and informal wok in small groups where participants can learn from each other and from the experiences they encounter during the Workshop.

Education for International Understanding (EIU), is a holistic and multi-dimensional education initiative to promote to learning to live together for a Culture of Peace. EIU advocates participatory democracy, human rights and dignity, social and economic equity, ecological sustainability, and peaceful reconciliation of conflicts. EIU pedagogy emphasizes transformative and inclusive education, relevance of knowledge, empowerment of learners, as well as holistic approaches.

- To expand the participants' understanding and knowledge of key concepts and principles of EIU/GCED
- To reorient the participants' perspectives towards a Culture of Peace through critical and reflective analysis of the current educational issues
- To strengthen the participants' practical skills to design and implement EIU/GCED training programmes tailored to their respective local context
