UNESCO/THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA - THE GREAT WALL
CO-SPONSORED FELLOWSHIPS PROGRMME 2026-2027
Application Guidelines

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Introduction

With a view to promoting the human resource development and capacity building of developing countries and to enhancing international exchanges in the field of education, culture, communication, science and technology and the friendship among peoples of the world, the Government of the People's Republic of China and UNESCO will co-sponsor a total number of seventy-five (75) fellowships in various fields of study at undergraduate and postgraduate levels during the academic year 2026-2027. Among these fellowships, twenty-seven (27) vacancies will be open for new recruitment to candidates from 135 developing Member States in Africa, Asia-Pacific, Latin America, Europe and Arab region.

Tenable at a selected number of Chinese universities, these fellowships are intended for students and researchers who plan to pursue degree study at the postgraduate level, or undertake individual research with periodic guidance from the assigned supervisors in China. A candidate may apply for either a one-year Visiting Scholar Programme (as General or Senior scholar), or a Master's or Doctoral degree programme with the duration of study ranging from 2 to 5 years. Subject to the availability of study programmes at the selected universities, the study programmes will be taught in English or Chinese. Candidates applying for the Chinese-taught programmes should have acquired a certain level of Chinese proficiency before undertaking research or studying in their fields of interest.

Fellowship recipients will be enrolled full-time in the academic programmes to which they are admitted in the Chinese universities within the framework of the Programme. Extension or repeated award of fellowships is not permitted under the same UNESCO fellowships programme.

Given the high priority that UNESCO places on Gender Equality, Africa and SIDS, female candidates and candidates from Africa and SIDS, especially those from the least developed countries are strongly encouraged to apply.
